ABOUT US

We are complex, get to know us.

Astrographic Industries is well regarded as your one stop shop for wayfinding, signage and road safety for all industries and applications. We work directly with municipalities, facility managers, general contractors and various other clients to determine the best course of action for wayfinding signage whether it is in a consultation capacity or following and meeting codes and standards for signage. Completing necessary work on time and on budget is a top priority.

Using sustainable business practices, environmentally friendly products, a “just-in-time” business model, and a team of highly skilled staff members, we will design with the highest quality materials and products in mind for your project. Proving that innovation plays a key role in the success of our business, as our employees consistently strive to bring productive fresh ideas to our customers in order to improve their end result.
